Re: GENERAL ASSIGNMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS

Please be advised that Mamtek U.S., Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), executed a general assignment for the benefit of creditors in favor of Development Specialists, Inc. (the "Assignee") that became effective on Tuesday, September 27, 2011. This action was taken by the Company after it was determined that it did not have sufficient assets to continue the building of the production facility in Moberly, MO and after defaulting on the initial payment due on the municipal bonds issued to finance the building of that plant by the City of Moberly, MO. The Company's remaining cash has been transferred to a bank account controlled by the Assignee.

The Assignee was made aware of the default on the bond payment and has advised the City, as well as counsel for the indentured trustee for the bonds (UMB Bank) of the making of the assignment. Further, the Assignee, through its counsel, John Fiero, Esq. and Jeff Pomerantz, Esq. of Pachulski, Stang, Ziehl & Jones, has reviewed the bond documents and does not currently believe that any of the physical assets affixed to the Moberly, MO plant site belong to the Company; rather, the Assignee believes those assets are the property of the City. There does not appear to be any creditor with a perfected lien on the Company's assets (with the exception of one item leased from a vendor and located at the Moberly plant).

The Assignee has also been made aware of an ongoing investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company had previously retained counsel, the firm of Munger Tolles & Olson in Los Angeles, to represent it in the SEC's investigation. Counsel to the Assignee has already begun discussions with both the SEC and the Company's counsel.

There are a number of entities related to Mamtek U.S., Inc. None of those entities have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors to Development Specialists, Inc. and as such, the Assignee has no control over the actions or activities of those entities.

For those of you unfamiliar with general assignments, the process is similar to liquidations administered under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. However, California law controls. Experience has proven that in circumstances such as these, estates administered through general assignments typically return a greater recovery on the assets of the estate, quicker and more economically than the bankruptcy process. Creditors should note that California law provides for an assignee to recover preferential transfers made by the Company within the ninety days immediately prior to the making of the general assignment, as well as transfers within one year to insiders of the Company. A review of the transactions that may qualify as recoverable under California law will be undertaken in the very near future.

Attached hereto creditors will find a form Proof of Claim by which creditors can file their claims with the Assignee. Please note that pursuant to California law (see Code of Civil Procedure §1802) the last day to file proofs of claim in this estate is March 16, 2012. Creditors who fail to file their proofs of claim by that date will not be entitled to share in any distribution arising out of the liquidation of the Company's assets. The Assignee will accept proofs of claim via facsimile, so long as the facsimile is received by the claims bar date March 16, 2012 and the original signed proof of claim is received by the Assignee not later than March 23, 2012. Please remember to include copies of your supporting invoices or statements with your proof of claim. The fact that the Assignee is accepting proofs of claim is not a guaranty that there will be any recovery by unsecured creditors from the liquidation of the Companies' assets.

Information regarding the general assignment may also be found at www.dsiassignments.com. After returning the form Proof of Claim, creditors are requested to advance their files approximately forty-five days, pending our next report.

Very truly yours,

Development Specialists, Inc., solely in its capacity as Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors of MAMTEK U.S., INC.
